To a real bad football team
Love Karl '68

Once about half past September
(The date I'm not sure I remember).
The Wheaton Knights of yore
Came back to check the score
(And stayed to see lots more).
They're checking in the trophy cases
'Round about and in unlikely places,
Deciding if the present days,
Are in any several manner of ways
Equal to or better than
The days of school when they began.
They're checking on our present Knights;
They're checking for familiar sights,
X-ing that and noting this—
There's not a thing that they will miss,
And they will find, to their surprise,
A new-made knight, Sir Alford—wise
To all the ways of modern men—
Who will as well, return again
To bear such findings home to those
Who ponder what our actions pose.
So follow the knights throughout The Lance
Page by page—give each a glance.

MESSAGE TO THE SENIORS

"Graduation Day" is thought of as a day of happiness during the time of anticipation. When it becomes a day of reality it becomes a sad day since it is the graduation of learning into the commencement of your own guided living.

We want to congratulate you, The Seniors of 1962, on this accomplishment in your educational life, which you have been living at Wheaton High School. No doubt you have gained much through the experience you have had while here.

Congratulations, or better yet, thanks for your contributions in building Wheaton's outstanding school spirit for which she is so well known throughout the area. Your Alma Mater will have gained from the Class of '62.

We are sure that in your commencement, the future holds success for each of you: success in health as you care for yourself in the toils of life; success in happiness as you continue to build your world of friends; success in the achievement of the goals which you have set for yourself as you have been building for this day of graduation.

A welcome to the class of '62 from your Alma Mater is always here for you. In this welcome, we mean a visit when you are near, a word of news when you are far, and a word of praise wherever you are.

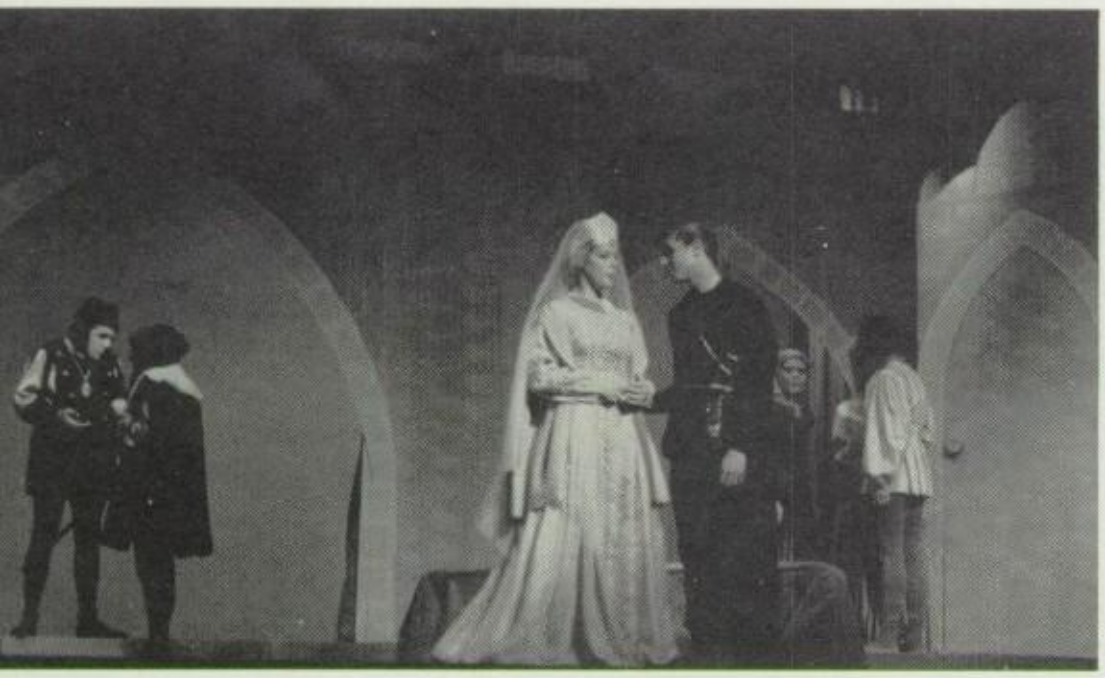
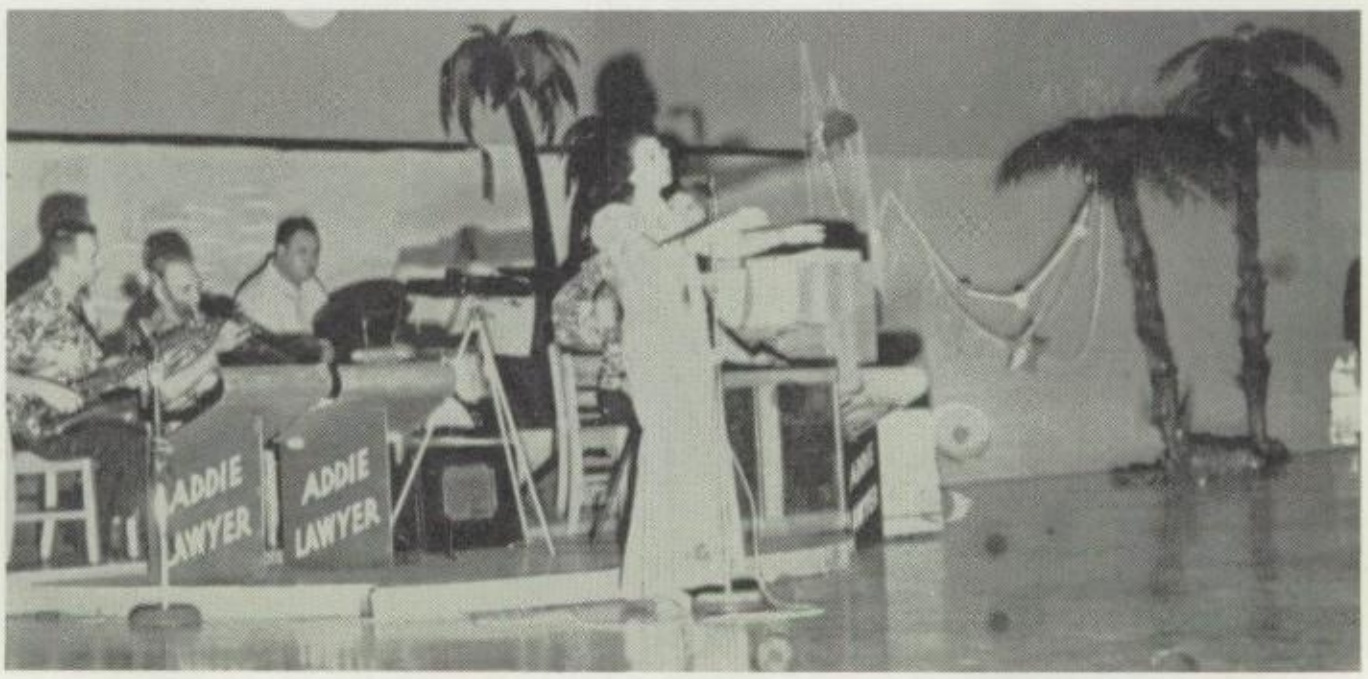
Senior Highlights



Chris Ray and Bob Booze star in the Senior Class sensation, "The Ivory Door."

e two queens certainly looked regal this year when they discovered they were to wear the crowns. At left is Pam Stover of the Christmas Ball, d Joan Winstead of the Homecoming Game is on the right.



Kami! Wahini! The Student Government sponsored dance was the unique dance of the year. The authentic Coconut Lounge atmosphere was most impressive.
